

Before we start the self-portrait collage answer the following questions about yourself. This will help as you are thinking about designing the art and will help you discover who you really are.

1. What is it that makes me a unique individual?
2. What do I like to do?
3. What are my core values and goals?
4. What words and images reflect my views on life and the things I care deeply about?
5. What is the central focus of my life?
6. Who am I?
7. How have people, experiences, and places shaped me?
8. What/Who are the “threads that weave the fabric” of my life?
9. What is my keenest insight? highest wisdom? deepest belief? truest face?
10. If you were offering advice to a younger brother or sister what would that advice be?
11. What symbols best represent my true self? Why?
12. A. What places represent you and where are you most comfortable? (The beach, city, mountains, school, mall, football field, farm, music room, etc.)
- 12.B And Why are those particular places important to you? Explain
